

SHARON MARIE CLINE

MUSIC DIVERSITY

Sharon Marie is quickly becoming a favorite in LA's Jazz club scene and performs with the finest Jazz musicians and in the most exclusive rooms on the West Coast and across the country. She's performed on the same stage as such Jazz greats as Nancy Wilson, Tony Bennett and Chris Botti.

Hailing from Jacksonville, Florida, Sharon Marie is an extraordinary vocalist who brings a unique & distinguished sense of Jazz history to her song stylings. Her approach to standards, show tunes and classic Jazz is charming and refreshing... she often employs rhythmic and tempo variations that breathe enjoyable new life into familiar standards. Her brilliant interpretations and her smooth mellifluous sound leave a lasting impression on her listeners that is truly unforgettable!

Backed by exceptional musicians, Sharon fondly dubs her group "The Bad Boyz of Jazz". They are known for their innovative rhythmic sense, lush arrangements and musical prowess. Her core group of "Boyz" includes—Rich Eames (piano), and Luther Hughes (bass), Adrian Rosen (bass) and Jon Stuart (drums), and Victor Orlando on Percussion. However, there are many extraordinary musicians that offer their great talent on this album: Ryan Cross (cello and bass), Reinhold Schwarzwald (alto saxophone), Lee Thornberg (trumpet), John Belzaguy (bass), Adam Cohen (bass), Bram Glik (tenor saxophone), Rob Hardt (flute), and Jacques Lesure (guitar).

The Divine Ms. Cline is exciting, sexy, fun and mesmerizing. Her style is reminiscent of a time gone by, yet is distinctively contemporary. Sit back and enjoy the romantic swingin' melodies of Sharon Marie Cline and The Bad Boyz of Jazz.

"Vocalist Sharon Marie Cline reaffirms her status of being one of the best singers of today with her new album This Is Where I Wanna Be.

Luis Raul Montell—Fundacion Jazz Venezolano

"Sharon's a great example of a singer who knows how to bring an audience into her universe. She wins her way into your heart the first time you hear her."—La Jazz Scene

"Carrying on the smoky-voiced tradition of an artist like the late, great Sarah Vaughan, Los Angeles-based songstress Sharon Marie Cline paints her way through a program of a dozen classic and original tunes on her new album, This Is Where I Wanna Be. Her phrasing is inventive, often creatively arresting. Her interpretations are molded emotionally and musically rich. This is a voice to be reckoned with."—Seattle Pi iHeartMedia announced that its fifth annual, star-studded iHeartRadio Music Festival will return to MGM Grand in Las Vegas on September 18 and 19, 2015 with a lineup to be announced in the coming months. Its daytime music showcase, the iHeartRadio Music Festival Village featuring interactive experiences, will return to the MGM Resorts Village across from the Luxor Hotel & Casino on Saturday afternoon. The company also announced a renewed partnership with Macy's to find America's next "Macy's iHeartRadio Rising Star."

Annual Macy's iHeartRadio Rising Star Talent Search Kicks Off —Vote Which Up-and-Coming Artist Will Perform on the Festival Stage.

For the fourth year, Macy's iHeartRadio Rising Star talent search will provide 25 emerging artists the chance to perform on the same stage as music's biggest stars at the 2015 iHeartRadio Music Festival and at select Macy's events this fall. iHeartRadio fans and Macy's shoppers will have the ability to hear fresh new music from the top five Rising Star finalists on iHeartRadio via Macy's exclusive mstylelab radio, the retailer's own radio station which also broadcasts live in-store at Macy's mstylelab Junior's and Young Men's departments nationwide. mstylelab radio is a destination where fans can discover new music, enjoy their favorite hits and connect to the latest in fashion and pop culture.
